

Open Publishing Projects Certificate

From concept to release, bring your OER vision to life through creative collaboration and proven practices that pave a clear path to publication.

Program Overview

Learn how to plan, manage, and publish high-quality, openly licensed publications in a collaborative, hands-on space. Work with your team and expert facilitators to explore universal design, effective workflows, and sustainable publishing practices. Graduate with a polished publishing plan, new leadership skills, and a strong foundation to advance open education.

Certificate & Microcredential

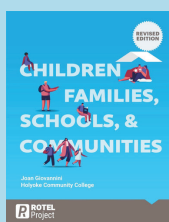

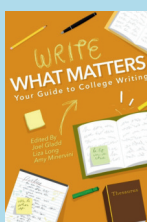

Live Sessions & Asynchronous Work over 12 Months

"The Open Publishing Projects Certificate is the lighthouse that gets you through those dark moments of feeling stuck and not knowing what to do next in the publishing process."

Yvonne Anthony, Framingham State University

Featured Publications Created by OPC Graduates

Join a year-long, three-phase cohort program with expert-led sessions, project-focused work, and ongoing support to take your OER from concept to publication!

Program Alumni and Partners

Scan the QR code to learn more about the program and enroll in our next cohort. For bulk registration or questions, email us – we'd love to help you get started!

The Rebus Foundation is an education non-profit that creates liberatory futures through open publishing, pedagogy, and joyful learning.

Rebus.Foundation

contact@rebus.community

